UPCOMING CST EVENTS

Mizrachi Selichot—Sunday, September 2, 8:30am - Rabbi Roland will share the tradition of daily Sephardic/Middle Eastern Selichot. The mood of these prayers is joyful and the tunes are contagious. It will surely be a meaningful way to prepare for Rosh Hashanah!

Traditional Selichot—Saturday evening, September 1, at 8:30pm. We will bid farewell to Shabbat with snacks and a spirited Havdalah. Then, the Rabbi will lead Selichot services that will include a couple of non-Ashkenazi liturgical poems and some learning in preparation for Rosh Hashanah, Berkowitz-Kumin-Bookatz has left us our annual allotment of 150 Jewish year 5779 calendars. Please take one per family. Thank you!

High Holy Day tickets, etc. have been mailed out. Your ticket/name tag is the small card with the apple sticker on it. We hope that you will choose to wear it with the lanyard that we provided last year. We have plenty of lanyards but, if you did not return yours last year, we ask that you use it during the holidays. If you did not receive your tickets, please be sure to send in your dues payment, or contact Martha when she returns on Wednesday.

Ushers are still needed for the High Holy Days! Please contact Roz if you can help out.

SYNAGOGUE ETIQUETTE

Please do not eat or drink in the sanctuary. While in the sanctuary, head coverings are required for men at all times, and for women ascending the bima. We welcome children in the synagogue and ask all parents to remind their children to behave courteously and respectfully. Please refrain from the use of cell phones while in the building on Shabbat and Holidays.
